This month: Longitude, by Dava Sobel. 18th century sailors could literally be lost at sea as soon as they lost sight of land. Thousands of lives and the fortunes of nations hung on the problem of finding longitude. Countless quacks and the scientific greats tried, but John Harrison dared to imagine a mechanical solution.

Next month: Using traditional Aboriginal Australian song lines as a starting point, Lynne Kelly has identified The Memory Code, of our ancestors and indigenous people around the world, and uses it to reveal the secret purpose behind the great prehistoric monuments like Stonehenge, apparently...

Come along, it will be brilliant! Maybe suggest the book we try next time? Come along to the tennis club and, if nothing else, have a cup of tea and a chat.

Have your say about local landscapes, flora and fauna

Macedon Ranges
Shire Council

Macedon Ranges Shire Council has started work on two new projects that will protect and enhance the shire's unique natural environment and is inviting feedback from the community at a series of drop-in sessions to be held in February.

All feedback received at the drop-in sessions will inform the development of two important strategic documents—a Landscape Assessment Study that recognises the importance of the shire's unique landscapes and a Biodiversity Strategy to protect the many plants and animals that call the Macedon Ranges home.

The Landscape Assessment Study will review significant views and vistas in publicly accessible locations across the shire, focusing on the visual, cultural and historic qualities of these landscapes.

The Biodiversity Strategy will outline a shared vision for the protection and enhancement of ecological values across the shire.

The drop-in sessions will be held on:

Monday 12 February, 4pm–6pm, Gisborne Community Centre, 8am Hamilton Street

Thursday 15 February, 5pm–7pm, Room 3 at Kyneton Mechanics Institute, 81 Mollison Street

Wednesday 21 February, 6pm–8pm, Lancefield Neighbourhood House, 78 High Street

For more information:

Landscape Assessment Study, call Liz Jardine on 5421 9684

Biodiversity Strategy, call Krista Patterson-Majoer on 5421 9503.

How would you balance Council's budget?

BIKE SAFE

Macedon Ranges

Distraction is the enemy

It was a tragic end to 2017 for several of our local families. We were absolutely shattered by the death of two local riders, killed by cars, and in similar circumstances.

At Bike Safe Macedon Ranges, we are big advocates of a shared responsibility model to road safety. As car drivers and cyclists, fathers and mothers, sons and daughters we need to look out for ourselves and for others on our roads. Unfortunately, the best infrastructure in the world and being visible by running day time lights, for example, can only work if drivers are paying attention. In the world of the “smart” phone, too many of us feel the need to always be on our phones, the fear of missing out.

We live in a country where many of us are privileged enough to own a car. Yet, we seem to treat that privilege to drive as a background activity, something that we can do while doing something else like reading or looking at our phones. Is that fear of missing out enough to risk the life of another on our roads? When you drive, there is nothing more important than piloting that vehicle safely. Everything else can wait.

Please, please concentrate on driving and leave that phone until you stop. We owe it to ourselves and to our community.
