Darraweit Guim Cemetery Trust

New Members wanted

Did you know that our cemetery is managed by a Trust of local volunteers?

No, I bet you don’t because they have been quietly working away in the background to manage our cemetery.

It is now time to add some new members to the Trust. Please consider whether you are interested in serving on the Trust.

The Trust will hold a public meeting to elect new members early this year.

Watch this space for more details.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact Duncan or Patience McDonnell on 5789 1210.

Everyone welcome

This month Gone Girl by Gillian Flynn. An addictive #1 bestseller thriller.

Next month—“We've got something to celebrate,’ Rosie said. 'We're pregnant!’ Don Tillman returns in The Rosie Effect by Graeme Simsion, and as he strives to get the technicalities right, he gets the emotions all wrong, and risks losing Rosie when she needs him most. The charming and hilarious romantic comedy of the year.

Come along to the tennis clubrooms at 7:30pm. We discuss the book, and chat about this and that, and maybe you could come along just to suggest a book we may try next time?

Anzac Day 2015—Poppy project

Darraweit Guim War Memorial Hall

We would like to decorate the entrance to the hall and hopefully the memorial in the school grounds with hand made poppies. This is inspired by the 5000 poppies project.

Patterns for poppies are available at http://5000poppieswordpress.com

Contact Viki Spedding on 5789 1237 if you would like more information or to drop poppies off.
Fire Restrictions

Phew! Finally nailed it down. Fire Restrictions are in force for this summer, and we have had a couple of days of serious risk. Remember these restrictions remain in force until the 1st of May, unless formally removed before that time.

Are you ready?

You have a long sleeved shirt, a mop and a bucket, the gutters are clear, are you ready? Do you really know what can happen as the fire season progresses? Spend 5 minutes of your time taking the Fire Ready Quiz and see if your expectations match up with reality. On completion there are links to resources that may help your understanding if the score is not one that would secure the Captain’s Tit’fer next Trivia Quiz Night.

New Station

We haven’t moved in yet, but the brigades trucks look SOO comfy in their new hutch. In the old station truck doors bang into each other, and bang into the walls. Now not so squeezy.
